About Vetericyn

Vetericyn is the first non-toxic broad spectrum antimicrobial for the animal healthcare market. Vetericyn products are steroid-free, antibiotic-free, and contain no alcohol or iodine. It is a one step formula that cleans and accelerates the wound healing process. This revolutionary antimicrobial solution based on Microcyn® Technology kills antibiotic-resistant strains of bacteria as well as fungi, viruses and spores. It consists of oxychlorine compounds that are similar to those produced by the animal's own immune system. Vetericyn will not harm healthy tissue and being pH neutral, it will not sting when applied.
